Saturday Morning Workshop: Memoir Writing

Mark your calendar for JUNE 18TH

Do you enjoy summer reading? This year try your hand at summer writing.

A memory is a priceless gift. As opposed to an autobiography,

Welcome Spring!

Spring seems to be a bit shy here in central Ohio, but hopefully all the April and May showers will bring us some June flowers! I hope your spirits have stayed bright, and may all of the mothers among us enjoy a healthy and happy Mother's Day.

this workshop will focus on identifying a single aspect of life to be recalled and shared. Whether it be a letter to one's children, the story of one's wedding day, the ambiance of a special place, the emotional impact of a situation or event, attendees will explore options and make a plan for recording a unique aspect of his or her own life. Come and participate in self-discovery and writing exercises and leave with a packet for continuing the journey with the goal of completing one piece. A short memoir can become a treasured family heirloom and makes a wonderful gift to a loved one.

More details coming soon!
Women's Board members will receive a special discounted rate.

Victoria Woodhull

only monument in the United States to Victoria Woodhull. A native Ohioan, Ms. Woodhull was the first woman to own a newspaper, the first woman to own a stock brokerage, the first woman to address Congress, and the first woman to run for President of the United States. In celebration of Victoria Woodhull's birthday in the fall, we will hear from intriguing and inspiring local women. This will be a free event for members and guests. Our lineup so far includes:

Pinch Lee: She has worked in the Motion Pictures and Film Industry for the Sundance Institute, 20th Century Fox, The Walt Disney Company and on the hit television show "Where In the World is Carmen Sandiego?" A Granville resident, Ms. Lee currently works for Bath & Body Works. Dates will be forthcoming.

Amy Butler: She is a designer of a line of products that includes fabrics, home decor, wallpaper, stationery, wall art, handbags and luggage, to name a few! She is the author of several craft and design books and former contributing editor to Country Living magazine. Tentative date of her talk: October 11, 2011 at 7:00PM.
